Details

Photocopies of a series of letters received by Mrs Harriet Brims between 1907 and 1909. Included are 1907 letters sent to her and her husband at Watsonville and Irvinebank by their adult children in Mareeba. Harriet Brims was working as a professional photographer at these locations. The letters discuss the photography business, the Brims' building business and general news. There are also letters and notes sent to Harriet Brims by clients of her photography business. Included is a copy of a prize certificate for Harriet Brims' photography issued by the Mareeba District Mining, Pastoral, Agricultural and Industrial Association. There are also copies of Harriet and Donald Brims' death certificates, and biographical information.
