

Entry type: Resource

Entry ID: PR00095

Adelaide Women's Liberation Movement Archives Collection

Repository State Library of South Australia

Date Range 1984 - 1-Mar-09

Quantity 30 m

Details

The Adelaide Women's Liberation Movement Archive was established in 1984 by a concerned group of women who wanted to preserve the history of what was called the second wave of feminism. With the aid of the Community Employment Program and the feminist community memorabilia was collected along with the papers of a variety of groups and individuals. The material was collected from late 1969 through to 2008.

Author Details

Kathleen Bambridge

Created 18 December 2009

Last modified 24 December 2017