

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0824

Brodie, Veronica Patricia

(1941 -)

Born 1 January, 1941, Point McLeay Mission South Australia Australia

Occupation Aboriginal spokesperson

Summary

Veronica Brodie (née Wilson) was born at the Point McLeay Mission. She moved to the Port Adelaide area in 1971, an area to which her grandmother's had links. For a time Brodie worked with the local Aboriginal Community including an Aboriginal Friendship Club for parents and children at the Port Adelaide Central Methodist Mission. She has been involved with the development of the regional Aboriginal Co-ordinating Committee; Kura Yerlo, the Aboriginal Centre in Largs Bay and the Nunga Miminis Women's Shelter.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia

[Interview with Veronica Brodie \[sound recording\]](#) Interviewer: Catherine Murphy

[Interview with Kathleen Brodie and Veronica Brodie \[sound recording\]](#) / Interviewer: Vivienne Wood

Author Details

Anne Heywood and Robin Secomb

Created 2 April 2004

Last modified 9 May 2019