

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0864

Lockwood, Betty Margaret

(1941 -)

Born 1 January, 1941, Britain

Occupation Nurse, Nursing administrator

Summary

Betty Lockwood was born in Britain and came to South Australia with her family in 1951. In 1968 she was appointed matron of the Gumeracha Hospital in Gumeracha South Australia, and within her term of service there she spent six months in Vietnam with a surgical team. Betty took an appointment as Director of Nursing and later Chief Executive Officer of the Ashford Community Hospital. She was also a part-time Commissioner in the SA Health Commission. Betty retired from Ashford in 1988.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia

[Interview with Betty Margaret Lockwood \[sound recording\] Interviewer: Joan Durdin](#)

Author Details

Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004

Last modified 16 September 2013