Entry type: Person Entry ID: AWE0865

Michelmore, Catherine

(1910 - 2002)

Born1 January, 1910Died27 May, 2002OccupationNurse, Nurse educator, Nursing administrator

Summary

Catherine Michelmore was born in Adelaide. She began training at the Adelaide Children's Hospital (ACH) after the outbreak of war in 1939. In 1947 she returned to the ACH she set up and conducted the first Preliminary Training School in South Australia. In 1960 she was appointed Deputy Matron at the ACH, from which post she retired in 1970. Miss Michelmore served as a council member of the Royal College of Nursing, Australia, and in 1965 was National President of the College.

Published resources

Resource Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia Interview with Catherine Michelmore [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details Robin Secomb

Created8 April 2004Last modified11 September 2015