

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0871

Schubert, Heather

(1943 -)

Born 1 January, 1943, Stirling South Australia Australia

Occupation Nurse, Nurse educator

Summary

Heather Schubert, née Duffield, was born in Stirling, South Australia. She began nursing training at the Royal Adelaide Hospital (RAH) in 1961. In 1974 she became a nursing supervisor, and in 1976 she was seconded to the South Australian Health Commission to provide education in high technology nursing for staff in country hospitals. At the time of the interview Heather was a nurse educator at the RAH. She was also actively involved in the Critical Care Nurses' Association.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia

[Interview with Heather Schubert \[sound recording\] Interviewer: Joan Durdin](#)

Author Details

Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004

Last modified 16 September 2013