

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Organisation

Entry ID: AWE0948

Wise Women Wednesdays

(2001 -)

Born 1 January, 2001, Western Australia Australia

Summary

Wise Women Wednesdays are an informal gathering for those interested in women's issues, to exchange information, network and plan. There is a lunch (BYO) and a chat between 12.00 and 12.30 pm. A presentation by an invited speaker takes place from 12.30 to 1.15. After the presentation there is time for questions and discussion. These free events are held on the 2nd Wednesday of the month and are supported by the Centre for Research for Women, National Council of Women Australia, National Council of Women Western Australia (NCW WA), Women's Electoral Lobby and Women's Policy Office, although the latter is no longer involved. Now basically run by the NCW WA a second branch has been established in Mendurah, Western Australia.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 7 May 2004

Last modified 16 September 2013