Woman's League

(1895 - 1970)

Born 1 January, 1895

Died 1 January, 1970

Summary

Formed in 1895 by Lucy Morice, supported by her aunt, Catherine Helen Spence. It aimed to build on the recent enfranchisement of women by educating women politically and socially to be able to take an intelligent part in the political life of the country. It also aimed to forge an alliance of women regardless of class and party to address issues concerning women and children. The first President was Annie Montgomerie Martin. Some members were also members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The League ended in 1897.
