

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1142

Perry, Nancye Enid Kent

(1918 - 2011)

Born 16 December, 1918, Killara New South Wales Australia

Died 26 July, 2011, Melbourne Victoria Australia

Occupation Artist, Scientist

Summary

Nancye Enid Kent Perry was born in Killara on 16 December 1918. She graduated in science from Sydney University and did postgraduate entomological research work in England. Perry later concentrated on her painting, working with the Heidelberg Art Group and others.

Studied Sydney University 1939-42; worked National Standards Laboratory, Sydney, 1943-4; postgrad. In agricultural economic entomology 1945; DSIR England 1947-50; CSIRO Melb. 1950-51; Walter and Eliza Hall Institute 1951-2; Fisheries and Game 1953-5; C'wealth Dept. of Health, Canberra and Tasmania 1955-7; married Warren Perry 16 November 1957; demonstrator in zoology for medical students at the University of Melbourne, 1958.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of Victoria

[Papers, 1937-1987 \[manuscript\].](#)

[Papers, 1900 - 2009 \[manuscript\].](#)

[Papers, 1917-1991 \[manuscript\].](#)

[Papers of Nancye Perry, 1989-1999 \[manuscript\].](#)

Author Details

Jane Carey

Created 22 December 2004

Last modified 11 April 2019