

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1401

Clancy, Lisa

Occupation School assistant

Summary

Lisa Clancy has been a long time active member of her community. She was an ALP candidate in the New South Wales Legislative Assembly for Myall Lakes in 2003.

Details

Lisa Clancy has worked in the Department of Education at Taree Public School since 1989. At the time of her campaign she was completing an Arts degree from the University of New England, majoring in political science.

Lisa has been active in her community over many years. She has served with the State Emergency Service, the Tourist Association and the Bushfire Brigade, as well as being active with the Parents and Citizens Associations of her children's schools. She has helped to establish playgroups and runs a Work for the Dole scheme.

Lisa is married to Bryan Clancy and they have three children.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Site Exhibition

Putting Skirts on the Sacred Benches: Women Candidates for the New South Wales Parliament, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2006, <http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/pssb/home.html>

Author Details

Annette Alafaci

Created 7 December 2005

Last modified 7 February 2006