

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person

Entry ID: AWE4186

Stephens, Ursula Mary

(1954 -)

Born 7 July, 1954, Wicklow Ireland

Occupation Businesswoman, Parliamentarian, Project officer, Teacher

Summary

A member of the Australian Labor Party, Ursula Stephens was elected as a Senator for New South Wales in the Senate of the Parliament of Australia in 2001. She was re-elected in 2007 and held the position of Parliamentary Secretary for Social Inclusion and the Voluntary Sector from 2007-10.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Rosemary Francis

Created 9 June 2009

Last modified 16 September 2010