Summary

The Australian Women's Register has compiled information about Indigenous women since the early nineteenth century in a range of contexts and activities. Many of them have links to full biographical notes and are available for browsing.

Users can access the information from browse lists accessible via the home page of the Australian Women's Register, or through structured searches, also accessible via the home page. Most are accessible from the 'A' browse page, but users should use the word 'indigenous' in their searches as well.
