

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE6180

Sutton, Fay

(1926 - 2000)

Born 24 June, 1926

Died 3 June, 2000, CoogeeCoogee New South Wales Australia

Occupation Campaigner, Conservationist, Environmentalist

Details

Conservation campaigner Audrey Fay Sutton grew up in Geelong, Victoria. In 1948 she graduated from the University of Melbourne having studied zoology, economic geography and politics. Fay became involved in the environment movement during the early 1970s.

From 1979 until her death, Fay was a council member of the Australian Conservation and was also instrumental to the formation of Greening Australia. Fay was an executive councillor of the Nature Conservation Council of New South Wales from 1980 to 2000 and was involved in several other groups and committees whose focus was on environmental issues.

Archival resources

National Library of Australia

[Papers of Fay Sutton, 19-- \[manuscript\]](#)

[\[Biographical cuttings on Fay Sutton, enviromentalist, containing one or more cuttings from newspapers or journals\]](#)

Author Details

Alannah Croom

Created 13 February 2018

Last modified 13 February 2018