

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person

Entry ID: AWE6413

Rushen, Elizabeth (Liz)

Occupation Historian, Researcher

Summary

Dr Liz Rushen is a Senior Research Associate in the school of Philosophical, Historical and International Studies within Monash University's Faculty of Arts. Liz was awarded her PhD in 1999 by Monash University and has also authored several other books on the migration of single women to Australia. Currently Liz holds the position of Chair of the History Council of Victoria and is a member of the Professional Historians' Association of Victoria. She is also the former Executive Director of the Royal Historical Society of Victoria.

Author Details

Alannah Croom

Created 20 December 2018

Last modified 1 March 2019