

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: IMP0201

Miller, Annie Emily

(1857 - 1926)

Born 1 January, 1857, Tasmania Australia

Died 19 November, 1926

Occupation Community worker

Summary

Annie Miller's contribution to the Red Cross Society in Launceston, Tasmania was acknowledged with her appointment as Officer of the Order of the British Empire on 15 February 1918. Her major work was as Secretary of the Red Cross, Northern Tasmania from 1914 until her death in 1926. She held the position also, of Secretary to the Fund Raising Committee of the Children's Section of the Launceston Public Hospital.

Sources used to compile this entry: A biographical register, vol II, p 104.

Published resources

Book Section

Miller, Annie Emily (c1857 - 1926), Community worker, Launceston, Tasmania., 1987

Site Exhibition

Faith, Hope and Charity Australian Women and Imperial Honours: 1901-1989, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2003,
<http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/honours/honours.html>

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Rosemary Francis

Created 23 October 2002

Last modified 4 May 2009