

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0085

O'Connell, Helen Elizabeth

(1962 -)

Born 3 April, 1962, Melbourne Victoria Australia

Occupation Urologist

Summary

Helen O'Connell was the first Australian woman to complete urology training. Her work on female genital anatomy, published in 1998, was pathbreaking. In particular, her research on the anatomy of the clitoris drew worldwide attention.

Events

2021 - 2021

For distinguished service to medical education, and to medicine in the field of urology, as an academic and clinician, and to professional groups.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Elle Morrell and Nikki Henningham

Created 14 February 2001

Last modified 11 August 2021